

SHUDDHA NOW

Powering the transition to zero carbon shipping

A compass whose needle is a kayak.

The needle is a single vesica: two circular arcs meeting in sharp points, the oldest shape in geometry. Seen from above it is a kayak — the cockpit, with its seat, sits just aft of centre. Seen again, it is a leaf. The compass ring opens where the hull passes through it, so the kayak is moving, not pinned in place.

Direction

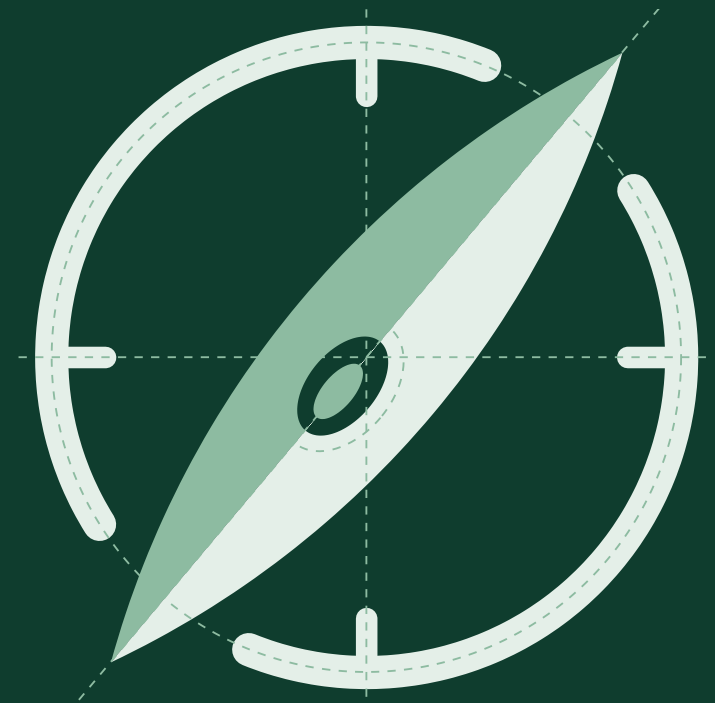

The compass — Shuddha now sets the heading for the move to zero carbon shipping.

Maritime

The kayak — human-powered, close to the water, no emissions.

Zero carbon

The leaf — the same outline, read as growth and a cleaner ocean.

Clear space

Keep a margin of x on every side, where x is the height of the letters in SHUDDHA. Nothing – text, edges, other logos – enters it.

Minimum size

Horizontal logo – 140 px wide on screen, 35 mm in print

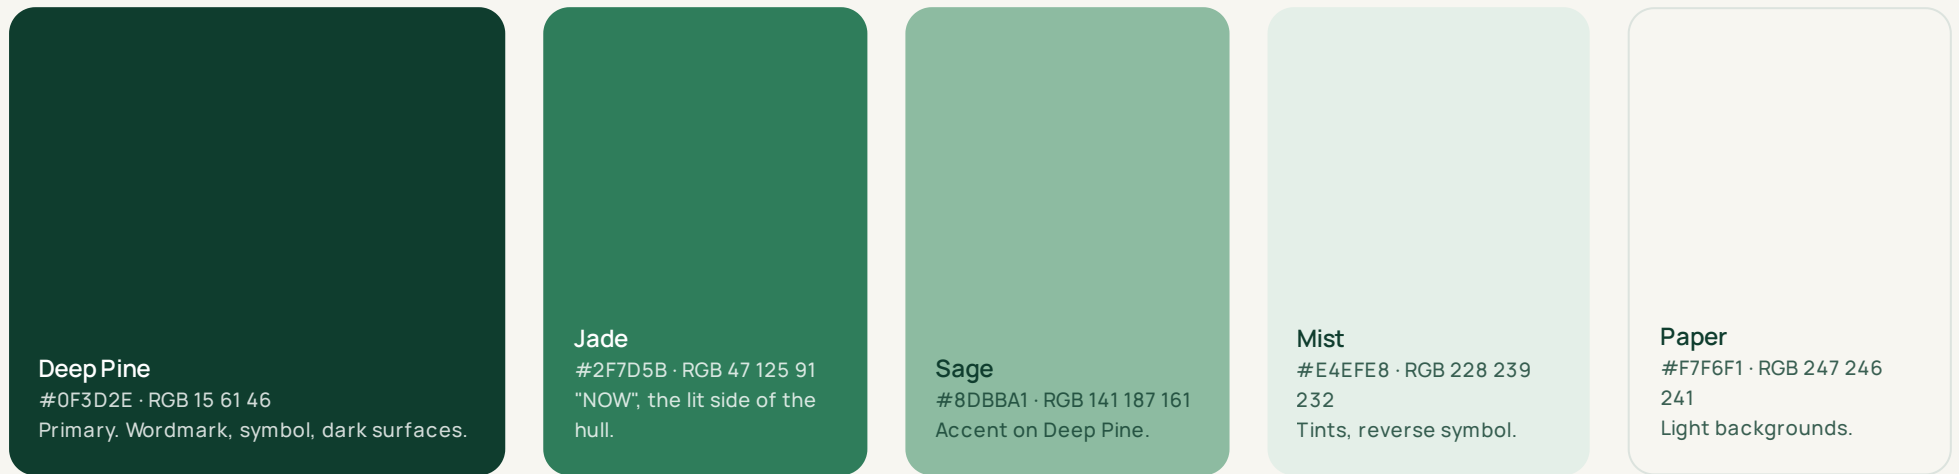

Stacked logo – 80 px wide on screen, 22 mm in print

Symbol – 32 px on screen, 8 mm in print

Below 32 px – use the compact symbol or favicon, which drops the compass ticks and opens the cockpit for legibility

Deep greens, used with restraint.

Proportion

Mostly Paper and Deep Pine; Jade and Sage as accents. The logo is never set in any colour outside this palette.

Contrast (WCAG)

- 11.2 : 1 Deep Pine on Paper
- 4.6 : 1 Jade on Paper — large text and marks
- 5.7 : 1 Sage on Deep Pine
- 12.2 : 1 White on Deep Pine

Manrope.

SHUDDHA NOW

A modern geometric sans with open, humanist details. It is precise enough for data and warm enough for people — the balance a maritime technology company needs. Free under the SIL Open Font License, from Google Fonts.
